

Liability Disclaimer

Massage is not, nor is it intended to be, a substitute for veterinary medicine. It is a complementary form of health care. The owner is advised to consult a veterinarian prior to the animal receiving massage with any medical concerns or questions and/or to verify with the veterinarian that massage is appropriate for the specific animal in question. Paula Shea is a certified massage therapist and member of Associated Bodywork & Massage Professionals (ABMP), NOT a veterinarian, and therefore is not able to answer any medical questions nor discuss or diagnose any symptoms.

Working with any animal involves inherent risk. The owner shall agree to not hold Paula Shea responsible for any injury or condition that may occur to their pet. Paula Shea agrees not to hold the owner responsible for any injury that may occur to her during the massage process (e.g. from a bite or kick).

I, _____, have read and understand the disclaimer above, and agree to the terms.
